1 Gruenewald House

This garden will appeal to those with an eye for history. It features a cottage garden with varieties of roses, herbs, and vegetables available before 1900. A traditional grapevine arbor and walk lined with alpine strawberries completes the scene from years gone by. This garden is featured every year and remains a popular favorite.

2 Small Town Charm

A scenic drive in the country leads to Alexandria and these gardens, with a variety of perennials, roses, and container plantings. A vegetable garden features corn, Ambrosia melons, peppers, climbing cucumbers, and several varieties of tomatoes.

3 Backyard Bay

Sail on in past the lighthouse fountain and leave your troubles behind. Sit awhile in the Noah's Ark bench and admire the birdhouse tree. Or, take a short stroll among the many ornamental grasses, steady perennials, colorful annuals and container gardens. A safe harbor for anyone's journey!

4 A Recycled Resort

Come join "Garoi" and all his friends at this charming tribute to recycling in the garden. Multiple themed garden areas provide a unique combination of plantings and "second chance" garden treasures.

5 Unique Expressions

Multiple flower gardens, landscaped ponds, and an herb garden are key features of this garden. Enjoy the warmth of a stone-lined firepit surrounded by antiques and garden decorations inspired by nature.

6 Countryside Retreat

Flower beds, birds, and butterflies make this a warm and refreshing summer place. These country gardens include an enjoyable mixture of annuals, perennials, hanging baskets, statues, fountains, and antiques placed within the gardens.

7 Country Meadows

Welcome to this country garden which features a variety of plants, container gardens, and a wagon load of flowers. Take a stroll through the vegetable garden and greenhouse area or relax by the outdoor fire patio while watching the birds in their sanctuary.

8 A Cottage Garden

Filled with mostly perennial flowers, this informal garden has the look of time. Together with its vintage brick path and rustic fence, it looks as if it has been handed down through the years. We hope you enjoy this array of cottage plants as much as the local wildlife!
