

Garfield Park Master Gardeners Annual Plant Sale

The Garfield Park Master Gardeners will hold their annual plant sale on Saturday, May 15th from 9 am to noon at Garfield Park Conservatory and Gardens in Indianapolis. The sale will feature annual and perennial plants for both sun and shade grown by master gardeners and nurseries. A variety of native plants, plants for water gardens, vegetables and herbs will be available.

Whether growing their own food, reconnecting with nature or simply acting on a desire to surround themselves with beauty, more and more people are discovering the joys of gardening. This sale offers the opportunity for both beginners and advanced gardeners to purchase outstanding plants at reasonable prices. For those new to gardening, master gardeners will be on hand to answer questions and offer advice.

Club members will also conduct a bake sale during the event. Community organizations related to gardening will be present to answer questions and share information about how to get involved in their activities.

Master Gardeners will once again be conducting tours of the Conservatory during the event. Admission to the Conservatory is a bargain at the regular price of only $1. Families with children are encouraged to stay after the plant sale for the Garfield Park "Paper Jam", which will take place from 1 to 4 pm. This park-wide event will include opportunities to make paper airplanes, kites and other fun objects with paper.

The Garfield Park Master Gardeners club is associated with the Purdue Master Gardener Program. Proceeds from the sale are used to fund the gardening and educational needs of community organizations as well as club activities. Garfield Park Conservatory and Gardens are located at 2505 Conservatory Drive, Indianapolis Indiana.
